About Maryland Rent Court Services

Founded in 2014, Maryland Rent Notices, LLC (T/A Maryland Rent Court Services) was founded after the sale and closure of Rent Court Agents, LLC. MRCS is a licensed debt collection agency that focuses primarily in summary ejection proceedings, also known as “rent court.”

We are one of only a few rent court agencies that are state and nationally licensed and bonded, a distinction we take seriously.

The founder and Majority Owner of MRCS is Brett Shepherd. Brett is a graduate of Frostburg State University and a lifelong Baltimore native. He began working for Rent Court Agents, LLC in the beginning of 2013 until their eventual sale and closure which took place at the end of June in 2014. Wanting to keep a hometown based business and keep with a one-on-one style of business and communication, Brett decided to start MRCS almost immediately after Rent Court Agents, LLC closed their doors.

While most business is done via email today, every client has Brett's personal cell phone number, meaning you don't have to call a department or office number when you need to talk to the person-in-charge. Almost every case passes through the hands of all staff members before filing, so we know about a case before it goes before the court. Other agents may never see a case before it is in front of the court.

Our clients range from first time filers with one case, to clients who file over 100 cases per month. MRCS staff has the knowledge and experience to work with landlords and property managers of all shapes, all sizes, and all business structures.

Thank you for considering using MRCS for your rent court needs. We are confident we are the agency you are looking for and will prove ourselves to be an asset for your company.

Failure to Pay Rent Notices

A failure to pay rent notice (a.k.a. FTP) is the first step in getting your tenant to either pay their back rent or getting them to return the property to you. Filing an FTP is done under the “File Online” tab of our website.

All rent notices are due by 12pm on the 2nd Monday of each month. Anything filed after that date will be held until the next month.

Essex District Court required a DOD (non)military affidavit to be attached to each notice. Please provide a copy of this or the tenant’s birthday and/or SSN.

Pricing

$60 per FTP (includes court costs)

Landlords filing 5+ notices per month qualify for special pricing*

Warrant of Restitution

The warrant of restitution (a.k.a. Putout) is the second step in the repossession process. The warrant provides notification to the sheriff your tenant has still not paid and you want to proceed with the eviction process. If your tenant pays you the rent due, the eviction is canceled. If your tenant fails to pay you the rent due, the eviction will proceed and you can reclaim your property.

Pricing

$65 per Putout (includes court costs)

Landlords filing 5+ putouts per month qualify for special pricing*

Rent Court Process

Step 1- Failure to Pay Rent

Generally 5 days after your tenant(s) rent has become due and they have not paid, you can file against them for failure to pay rent. This is when you can file your rent notice under the “File Online” tab at RentCourtServices.com.

Step 2- Getting A Date

After you submit your case and all information is verified, MRCS will file your case at the District Court. It generally takes about a week to get a trial date back from the Court. Once we get a trial date, we will contact you.

Step 3- Going to Court & Getting a Judgment

MRCS will send their agent to the court date on your behalf. You should try to make yourself available via phone during this time incase the agent has any questions while they are in court. MRCS works on the classic adage “No News, is Good News.” If you don’t receive a call, email, etc... Your case went fine and you received your judgment as requested. If you would like, you are more than welcome to email or call after court to ask about the outcome.

*PLEASE NOTE:
IN MOST CASES THE TENANT HAS EVERY RIGHT TO PAY AND
STAY AT ANY TIME
DURING THIS PROCESS

Rent Court Process

Step 4- Filing Your Warrant

Your tenant has 4 business days after the trial date to file an appeal to the Circuit Court. After those 4 days, if no appeal is filed and your tenant has not paid the judgment amount plus court costs you can request your warrant under the “File Online” tab at RentCourtServices.com.

Once your warrant is filed DO NOT accept any partial payments, unless you are willing to refile your warrant or forgive the remain debt.

You will receive a case number within 24 hours of your filing. This case number is what you need to give to the constable/sheriff to schedule your warrant with the constable/sheriff in about 7-10 business days.

Step 5- Eviction Day

Arrive to the property at least 30 minutes prior to the schedule time and make sure you are clearly visible from the road for the constable/sheriff to see you. Some constables/sheriffs require you to have movers present, some do no not. You should verify with them when you call to schedule your eviction.
